Headline:
Bright with some sunny spells.

Today:
Isolated showers at first near the north coast, otherwise a dry and bright day with some sunny spells. Breezy around North Sea coasts, but winds falling light during the day. Maximum temperature 14 deg C (57 deg F).

Tonight:
Cloud will thicken from the west with outbreaks of rain later this evening and overnight. The southerly winds will also freshen and a milder night than of late. Minimum temperature 7 deg C (45 deg F).

Thursday:
It will be mostly cloudy with outbreaks of rain. However, some drier and brighter spells are expected, the best of these through Moray and northern Aberdeenshire. Breezy and warm. Maximum temperature 18 deg C (64 deg F).

Outlook for Friday to Sunday:
Some early rain on Friday, but it should become drier and brighter. Further rain at times on Saturday, then bright and breezy with a few showers on Sunday.
